A mystic may be called a person in love with God. Not one who loves God, but who is in love with God. And this mystical love, which is an exalted emotion, leads one to love the things of Christ. His footsteps are sacred. The steps of his Passion and Death are retraced down through the ages. Almost every time you step into a church you see people making the Stations of the Cross. They meditate on the mysteries of his Life, Death, and Resurrection, and by this they are retracing with love those early scenes and identifying themselves with the actors in those scenes.

On the Road to Sainthood

Un místico puede ser llamado una persona enamorada de Dios. No uno que ama a Dios, sino que está enamorado de Dios. Y este amor místico, que es una emoción exaltada, nos lleva a amar las cosas de Cristo. Sus pasos son sagrados. Los pasos de su pasión y muerte se remontan a través de los siglos. Casi cada vez que entras en una iglesia ves gente haciendo las estaciones de la cruz. Meditan en los misterios de su Vida, Muerte y Resurrección, y con esto recorren con amor esas primeras escenas y se identifican con los actores en esas escenas.
